Booking conditions

The lesson/hack prices start from £30 for under 16's, £35 for age 16+.

The lesson length will be 60mins inclusive of mounting time.

Weekday riding lessons must be booked in a half termly block, payment for the next half term must be paid for on or before the last lesson of the current half term. If payment isn't received then spaces will be offered to those on the waiting list.

Saturday lessons require a block booking of 4 consecutive weeks, the next block must be paid for on week 3 of the current block. If payment isn't received then spaces will be offered to those on the waiting list.

We operate a no cancellation policy therefore we cannot under any circumstances alter the booking to another day/time. this applies to all lessons whether block booked or single bookings during school holidays.

If a lesson is cancelled due to the yard being closed due to severe weather conditions this lesson will automatically be added on to the end of your block of booked lessons.

For block bookings at novice level and above all riders must have their own riding hat that conforms to current British safety standards, gloves, riding boots and whips. If you are hacking you will need to supply your own fluorescent tabard.

For block booked beginners, riders must have their own hat that conforms to British safety standards, and will not be able to come off the lead rein or progress to the novice lesson unless they have the correct riding footwear.

Riders in lessons that don't require block booking during the holidays will not be able to come off the lead rein unless they have their own hat and correct riding footwear such as jodhpurs boots or long riding boots.

Beginners will need an adult helper to help with mounting, adjusting stirrups and to lead, appropriate footwear required.

All riders at novice level and above must be capable of mounting and adjusting girths and stirrups themselves

No air jackets allowed.

All body protectors must conform to current British safety standards.

Body protectors are compulsory for jumping lessons

We operate an upper weight limit of 13 & 1/2 stone for flatwork and hacking and 12 & 1/2 stone for jumping, all our horses and ponies have individual weight limits applied to them.

All new riders will be required to weigh themselves on our scales in private before riding commences.

All regular riding school clients and sharers will be required to do the same at various times throughout the year or if a horse or pony's weight limit changes. This may be requested at any time without any given notice.

All riders are to go straight to the school upon arrival, unless you need to pay for your next block of lessons

We operate a no video or photo policy, if you wish to take a photo please request permission from the instructor at the end of the lesson.
